

Cut around the outer edge of the Sundial. Fold the centre vertical line up, and the two True North lines down to create a triangle (called the gnomon) that stands vertically from the horizontal sundial face. Place the sundial flat and level, with the gnomon pointing towards True North.